

Trump pardons Florida health executive who evaded taxes to fund luxury lifestyle

Ha, ha, ha!!

Washington, April 30 (RHC)-- U.S. President Donald Trump has pardoned Paul Walczak, a Florida healthcare executive convicted of tax evasion for stealing nearly $11 million in payroll taxes from the paychecks of doctors and nurses.

Just 12 days ago, a jury found Walczak guilty, after prosecutors showed he used the money to finance a lavish lifestyle that included luxury goods and a $2 million yacht.

Walczak is the son of Betsy Fago, a healthcare entrepreneur and Republican Party donor.
