

Real Madrid to Sack Ancelotti at the End of the Season.

Real Madrid

Madrid, May 6 (PL) Real Madrid will dismiss Italian coach Carlo Ancelotti at the end of the current season, The Athletic assured.

According to the media, both parties have reached an agreement to put an end to their relationship.

After being eliminated in the European Champions League at the hands of Arsenal and losing the final of the Copa del Rey against Barcelona, in addition to having almost lost the Spanish League, Ancelotti's chances of continuing were slim.

It is worth remembering that the award-winning Italian coach has a contract with Madrid until June 2026.

According to several media outlets, the main candidates to replace Ancelotti on the Merengue bench are Xabi Alonso and Jurgen Klopp.
