

Judo Camp for Women to Be Held in Cuba

Judo

Havana, May 12 (RHC) - Between May 15 and 24, the II National Women's Judo Camp will be held at the Cerro Pelado High Performance Athletes Training School.

Judoists of the cadet and youth categories, who are part of the national pre-selection reserve, whether they are enrolled in the national technical centers or provincial academies, and some of immediate perspective, will participate.

One of the objectives of this training camp is to define the enrollment of new members of the national pre-selection, explained the national commissioner of the discipline, Andrés Taño.

The executive also clarified that they intend to accumulate bouts and randori minutes for the qualifiers for the Junior Pan American Games of Asuncion 2025.

The intensive is strategically confirmed with several specific elements such as the theoretical work of Tachi Waza and Ne Waza.

And obviously, it includes several technical and physical tests for those involved.
