

Bahamian Transport and Aviation Minister Pays Visit to Cuba

Havana, November 29 (RHC) Cuban government vice-president Ricardo Cabrisas held talks on Friday, in Havana, with Bahamas' Transport and Aviation Minister Glenys Hanna Martin, who is in Havana to attend commemorations for the 40th anniversary of diplomatic relations between the two countries.

The two government officials expressed satisfaction with the current state of bilateral cooperation relations and described the visit by the Bahamian minister as an expression of interest and mutual commitment to the development of bilateral collaboration relations in areas of interest and benefit for the two countries.

The two ministers also presided over a stamp-canceling ceremony, at the Cuban Foreign Ministry, dedicated to the 40th anniversary of the establishment of diplomatic relations between Cuba and The Bahamas.
