

Final House Race Seals Largest Republican Majority in Over 80 Years

Phoenix, December 19 (RHC)-- In the U.S. state of Arizona, the final undecided congressional race from this year's midterm elections has been called in favor of a Republican candidate.

Retired Air Force Colonel Martha McSally has defeated Democratic incumbent Ron Barber. His defeat gives Republicans their 247th House seat in the new Congress, their largest majority in more than 80 years.

<https://www.radiohc.cu/en/noticias/internacionales/41509-final-house-race-seals-largest-republican-majority-in-over-80-years>

Radio Habana Cuba