

National Symphony in Concert in Old Havana

Old Havana's San Francis of Assisi Square will be the venue of the New Year Concert "Por Mi Habana" on Saturday, December 27th, starring Cuba's National Symphony Orchestra.

The National Symphony, conducted by maestro Enrique Pérez Mesa, will be accompanied by renowned Cuban soprano, Bárbara LLanes, the famous Aragón Orchestra, celebrating its 75th anniversary, and the National Opera Choir. The concert is also part of celebrations marking the 56th anniversary of the Cuban Revolution.

<https://www.radiohc.cu/en/noticias/cultura/42085-national-symphony-in-concert-in-old-havana>

Radio Habana Cuba