

New U.S. Senate Intel Committee Chair Seeks Return of CIA Torture Report

Washington, January 31 (RHC)-- The new Republican chair of the U.S. Senate Intelligence Committee has asked the Barack Obama administration to return all copies of the Senate's landmark report on CIA torture.

Sen. Richard Burr has also indicated he will return a secret CIA internal report, known as the Panetta Review, which found the agency inflated the importance of information gained through torture.
