

Boko Haram Massacres 100 in Cameroon

Yaoundé, February 5 (RHC)-- The militant group Boko Haram has reportedly conducted another massacre. A local source told Reuters news agency the militants killed more than 100 people in the Cameroonian town of Fotokol, murdering people inside their homes and a mosque.

This comes as the Chadian government claims to have ousted Boko Haram from the Nigerian border town of Gamboru Ngala, which the militants have held for months.
