Baseball

Without defining the 4 semifinalists and with the current champion a far cry in 6th place, the 54th Cuban Baseball Championship takes a break on Wednesday with just 12 games to close the present stage prior to the post season.

Despite Matanzas' 2-1 wins over Industriales, and those of Granma facing Artemisa, plus Ciego de Ávila's sweeping Isla de la Juventud, none of them have secured their spot for the playoffs, although major steps toward that objective were taken.

On Tuesday, Matanzas defined the match against Industriales to leave them dramatically on the field by 6x5 in more than 4 hours of mediocre baseball, as 14 tickets, 3 balls and 5 errors occurred.

Granma got same result after beating 14x13 to Artemisa in another over-time game of 13 innings.

Meanwhile, the Avilanians' Los Tigres, with 16 wins in the last 21 games, swept Isla de la Juventud by 1x0, supported by Alain Sanchez' and Yunier Cano's excellent pitching.

For its part, the champion Pinar del Río fell 11x3 versus Holguín, which produced 15 hits, including consecutive homers of Yeison Pacheco and Edilse Silva against Freddy Asiel Alvarez, plus another Franklin Aballe's solo homer.

With just 4 subseries to close the 2nd phase of the tournament, Matanzas (48-27), Granma (45-30) and Ciego de Ávila (44-31) are very close to the playoffs, while still competing for the 4th and final quota

Industriales (42-33) and Isla de la Juventud (41-34) and less likely, Pinar del Río (39-35) are pulling out the string; the Table is completed Artemisa (36-39) and Holguín (33-42).
