

Mass Grave Found in Nigerian Town After Expulsion of Boko Haram

Abuja, March 24 (RHC)-- A mass grave has been discovered in a Nigerian town following the ouster of the Boko Haram. Nigerian and Chadian forces found more than 70 bodies after expelling Boko Haram fighters from Damasak.

Nigeria is holding national elections later this week after postponing them in the wake of Boko Haram attacks.

<https://www.radiohc.cu/en/noticias/internacionales/50355-mass-grave-found-in-nigerian-town-after-expulsion-of-boko-haram>

Radio Habana Cuba