

UK Launches Largest Air Drills in 30 Years

London, March 31 (RHC)-- Britain has launched its largest aerial exercises in three decades over what London calls "increased Russian presence around UK shores." More than 30 Royal Air Force planes took to the skies for the 'Rising Panther' drills.

The warplanes include 20 Typhoons and Tornado fighter jets as well as a range of ED-3, AWACS, Sentinel and Shadow surveillance aircraft.
