

Cuba and Trinidad-Tobago Sign Tourist Accords

Havana, Apr 1, (RHC), – Cuba and Trinidad and Tobago signed a bilateral collaboration accord in the area of tourism to promote and increase the flow of travelers and to boost the Caribbean multi-destination.

A statement by the Cuban Tourism Ministry explained that the accord came in as part of a visit to Havana by Trinidad and Tobago's Tourism Minister Gerard Hadeed, who penned the document along with his Cuban counterpart Manuel Marrero.

The agreement includes the training of personnel, investment promotion, the exchange of expertise and scientific experience, environmental evaluations and the development of new tourist products.

Hadeed and his delegation visited Cuba between March 28 and 31 as they toured tourist and patrimonial facilities and other sites of interest. They also visited the Havana's tourism training centers, where they learned about the professional courses for personnel in the sector.

The Trinidadian delegation held talks here with the minister of Foreign Trade and Investment, Rodrigo Malmierca and with government vice-president Ricardo Cabrisas.
