

U.S. Activists Launch "March 2 Justice" for Police, Prison Reform

New York, April 14 (RHC)-- Activists in the United States have launched a nine-day march from New York City to Washington, D.C., to call for sweeping criminal justice reform from police departments to the courts.

The 250-mile "March 2 Justice" seeks an end to racial profiling and militarized policing, as well as the dismantling of "the societal and institutional pillars of mass incarceration."
