

Saudi Arabia Rejects Iran Ceasefire Calls in Yemen

Riyadh, April 14 (RHC)-- Saudi Arabia has dismissed Iranian calls for an end to its bombing campaign in Yemen. Last week, Iranian President Hassan Rouhani urged a ceasefire and dialogue among rival Yemeni factions.

But Saudi Foreign Minister Saud al-Faisal says: "Iran is not in charge of Yemen." Faisal's comments come as the Saudi-led airstrikes have faced a rebuke from Pakistan. Earlier, Pakistani lawmakers voted to reject a Saudi request to join the campaign.
