

Jamaicans head to Cuba on trade mission

Kingston, April 18, (RHC), -- In a bid to increase export of Jamaican goods and services, Minister of Industry, Investment and Commerce, Anthony Hylton is leading 18 Jamaican companies on a trade mission to Cuba.

The mission will begin its visit on April 20 and is scheduled to end on April 23.

The delegation includes prominent Jamaican companies, that see in Cuba a potentially lucrative market, due to its large population and growing tourism sector.
