

At Least 30 Civilians Killed in Saudi Airstrikes on Sanaa

Sanaa, May 2 (RHC)-- Fresh Saudi airstrikes against the Yemeni people have claimed the lives of at least 30 civilians in the capital city of Sanaa.

According to local Yemeni officials, the Saudi airborne assaults on Friday targeted residential areas in the Sawan district of Sanaa, killing 30 civilians, including nine women and two children. Several people were also injured following Saudi airstrikes on the Yemeni provinces of Aden, Hajjah, Ma'rib and Jawf.

Fighter jets pounded two military bases in the capital and the western province of Hudaydah. A bridge was also reportedly struck by Saudi fighter jets in the Huth district in Amran province.
