

Police in Texas Kill Two Gunmen Outside Anti-Islam Event

Dallas, May 4 (RHC)-- In the U.S. state of Texas, police have shot and killed two men they say opened fire outside an anti-Islam event in the city of Garland, wounding a security officer.

The event, organized by Pamela Geller, executive director of the American Freedom Defense Initiative, included a contest for drawing the best caricature of the Prophet Muhammad. The gunmen have not been identified.
