

Vatican Recognizes Palestinian State in Treaty

The Vatican, May 14 (RHC)-- The Vatican will officially recognize the state of Palestine in a new treaty. The treaty concerns the Vatican's interests in the Occupied Territories.

Earlier drafts referred to the "Palestine Liberation Organization" rather than the "State of Palestine," but the Vatican has referred to the state of Palestine in other contexts since at least 2012, when the United Nations voted to recognize Palestine as a non-member observer state.
