

Israeli Forces Clash with Palestinians on Nakba Day

Ramallah, May 16 (RHC)-- Dozens of people have been injured after Israeli regime forces fired live rounds to disperse thousands of Palestinian demonstrators marking the 67th anniversary of the Nakba Day (Day of the Catastrophe).

On Friday, thousands of Palestinians held massive rallies in Ramallah, Nablus, and Hebron in the occupied West Bank to express their resentment over the ongoing Israeli occupation. The angry protesters chanted slogans against the Tel Aviv regime's expansionist agenda and the confiscation of Palestinian land by Israel.
