

Mediators Concerned About Colombian Talks in Havana

Havana, May 29 (RHC-PRESSTV) — Meanwhile, Cuban and Norwegian mediators have expressed concern about the peace process between the Colombian government and FARC rebels following an escalation in violence between the two sides.

The observers said in a statement that the affairs overshadowing the peace deal between the government of President Juan Manuel Santos and the FARC are adversely impacting the talks. Negotiations between the two sides resumed on Monday in the Cuban capital city amid escalating tensions.
