

IMF Says Greek Exit from Eurozone Possible

Brussels, May 29 (RHC)-- The head of the International Monetary Fund (IMF) says Greece might exit from the eurozone, adding that the possible move will not negatively influence the euro.

Christine Lagarde made the remarks on Thursday in an interview with the German daily Frankfurter Allgemeine Zeitung as negotiations are being held between Greece and its lenders to reach a deal unblocking bailout funds which the country desperately needs.

<https://www.radiohc.cu/en/noticias/internacionales/57654-imf-says-greek-exit-from-eurozone-possible>

Radio Habana Cuba