

Dominican Republic Hosts Continental Solidarity-with-Cuba Forum

Santo Domingo, June 4 (RHC)-- The 8th Continental Encounter in Solidarity with Cuba will take place July 28th through the 30th in Santo Domingo, the Dominican Republic.

The spokesperson with the event's organizing committee, Ivan Rodriguez, told Prensa Latina news agency that the forum follows up on actions in support of Cuba against the U.S. economic blockade, which is still in force despite ongoing talks between Washington and Havana to reestablish full diplomatic relations.

The participants at the forum include representatives of local and national solidarity committees, friends, intellectuals and members of social, political organizations of other movements.

Cuba's ambassador to Santo Domingo, Carlos de la Nuez, thanked the Dominican solidarity movement and Latin American friends for the initiative in support of his country.
