

Fidel Castro Honored as Founder of July 26th Movement

Havana, June 13, (RHC), – Participants at the “60th Anniversary of the 26 of July Movement” Workshop granted a distinction to Cuban Revolution leader Fidel Castro, as well as Armando Hart Dávalos and Pedro Miret Prieto, honoring them as founding members of the first National Directory of the 26th of July Movement, an organization that led the guerrilla fight against the Batista dictatorship.

The workshop was held in the Cuban capital, sponsored by the State Council's Historical Affairs Office.
