

Dozens Wounded in Taliban Attack on Afghan Parliament

Kabul, June 23 (RHC)-- In Afghanistan, government forces have reportedly retaken control of a key district near the northern city of Kunduz amid a renewed offensive by the Taliban.

The apparent victory comes after Taliban militants attempted to storm the Afghan Parliament in Kabul Monday, setting off explosives and firing rockets in a siege which left six gunmen, a car bomber and at least two civilians dead. Dozens of people were wounded in the attack.
