

Cuba and Mexico Discuss Immigration Issues

Mexico City, June 25 (RHC) -- Mexico and Cuba have concluded in Mexico City the Tenth Meeting of the Working Group on Immigration and Consular Affairs, the Cuban embassy there reported.

During the meeting, the migratory flow between the two countries was analyzed, and the parties also assessed the implementation of the migration agreement between both countries.

The Cuban delegation was headed by the Director of Consular Affairs and Cuban Residents Abroad at the Cuban Ministry of Foreign Affairs, Rafael Dausa.

The Mexican Director General of Consular Services at the Secretariat of Foreign Affairs, Olga Beatriz Garcia also attended the talks.
