

Cuban Deputy Foreign Minister Concludes Visit to Zimbabwe

Harare, June 26 (RHC) — Cuban Deputy Minister of Foreign Affairs, Rogelio Sierra, wrapped up a visit to Zimbabwe, where he ratified the historic bonds of friendship and cooperation between Cuba and the African nation.

According to the Foreign Affairs Ministry, Sierra fulfilled a packed agenda of activities that included talks with Zimbabwe first vice president, Emmerson Mnangagwa, the Foreign Minister, Simbarashe Mumbengegwi and senate vice president, Chen Chimutengwende, who expressed their deep admiration for Cuba's resistance in the face of decades long U.S. hostile policies and aggressions.
