

Arson Damages Black Church in North Carolina

Charlotte, June 26 (RHC)-- A predominantly Black church has been targeted with arson in Charlotte, North Carolina.

Part of the Briar Creek Road Baptist Church burned down after it was deliberately torched on Wednesday. Investigators are looking into the blaze as a possible hate crime.

<https://www.radiohc.cu/en/noticias/internacionales/60530-arson-damages-black-church-in-north-carolina>

Radio Habana Cuba