

Cuban Lawmakers Will Address Fight Against Corruption and Illegalities

Havana, July 1 (RHC) — Cuban lawmakers will analyze the results of the fight against crime, corruption, illegalities and social indiscipline at the Cuban Parliament session, which is slated for July 15th.

Parliament Secretary Miriam Brito told reporters on Tuesday that the deputies' agenda also includes the consideration of the people's opinions in neighborhood meetings presided over by local councilors.

The permanent commissions will work July 11th, 12th and 13th on their respective agendas prior to the 5th Ordinary Session of the National Assembly of People's Power, which will also take a look at issues related to the country's economic plan for the first half of this year and the performance of the budget plan for 2015.
