

U.S. State Department Says Some of Hillary Clinton's Private E-mails May Be Classified

Washington, August 19 (RHC)-- A U.S. State Department review of Democratic presidential candidate Hillary Clinton's e-mails has flagged 305 messages which require further scrutiny because they may contain classified information.

Hillary Clinton has been under fire for relying exclusively on a private e-mail server while she was secretary of state. She has denied sending or receiving e-mails marked classified on the private account.
