

At Least 21 Killed in Two Suicide Car Bomb Attacks in Somalia

Mogadishu, August 24 (RHC)-- At least 21 people have died in Somalia following two suicide car bomb attacks over the weekend.

The first attack struck a training base for government troops on Saturday, killing 16 soldiers. The second attack struck an intersection on the capital Mogadishu, killing five.

The militant group al-Shabab has claimed responsibility for the attack on the training base.
