

Customs Agents Arrest 244 People in Mass Immigration Raids in California

Sacramento, September 3 (RHC)-- In the United States, the Immigration and Customs Enforcement agency has arrested nearly 250 people during four days of raids targeting undocumented immigrants across Southern California.

The agency says that 56 percent of those arrested had past felony convictions and that the rest had past misdemeanors.

<https://www.radiohc.cu/en/noticias/internacionales/67836-customs-agents-arrest-244-people-in-mass-immigration-raids-in-california>

Radio Habana Cuba