

Cuban Foreign Minister Meets with President of Spanish Congress

Havana, September 4 (RHC)-- The president of the Congress of Spain, Jesus Posada, who is visiting Cuba, held talks today with Cuban Foreign Minister Bruno Rodriguez and the Minister of Foreign Trade and Foreign Investment, Rodrigo Malmierca.

This Friday, the Spanish legislator and the multi-party delegation accompanying him will meet with emigrants from the Iberian nation and representatives of the autonomous communities residing in Cuba.

Tomorrow, on the last day of his stay in Havana, Jesus Posada will hold a meeting with Cuban Parliament President Esteban Lazo, who extended the invitation to him to travel to our country.

The head of the Spanish Congress began his official visit by meeting with Spanish businessmen, who expressed their support to boost trade and investment in the Caribbean nation.
