Havana, Aug 5, (RHC), -- The Foreign Minister of Chile, Heraldo Muñoz, termed as very successful his diplomatic and business visit to Cuba, saying it has opened the doors to increased bilateral exchange.

At the end of a business meeting with entrepreneurs from both countries, Munoz stressed his country's keenness to cooperate with Cuba as part of real South-South cooperation. Munoz added that the Chilean delegation included 30 business people, showing his country's interest in taking part in the current economic transformation in Cuba.
