

Equatorial Guinea Reiterates Support for Cuba Against U.S. Blockade

Malabo, September 14 (RHC)-- The government of Equatorial Guinea has reiterated its support for Cuba and against the U.S. blockade.

Third Vice President of the African country Alfonso Nsue Mokuy met over the weekend with Cuban ambassador there Pedro Doña.

The leader from Equatorial Guinea said his country will once again vote in favor of Cuba and for the elimination of the U.S. policy during the 70th session of the UN General Assembly in late October.
