

Cuba's Litz Alfonso Ballet Company Prepares Tour of Mexico

Havana, September 23 (RHC)-- Cuba's Litz Alfonso Ballet Company is preparing a tour of several Mexican cities, according to the general director of the dance company.

The CubaSi website reports that the tour will open with the show "Alas" on September 24th and 26th at the Macedonio Alcala Theater of the city of Oaxaca.

The artistic director and founder of the company, Litz Alfonso, expressed her expectations for the tour of Oaxaca, which also includes Tijuana and Mexicali.

In Tijuana, the troupe will perform at the CECUT Cultural Center, where they will present a program on September 29th and 30th, while in the city of Mexicali the artists will dance at the State Theater on October 2nd.
