

Yemeni Vice President Escapes Attack on Residence

Sanaa, October 6 (RHC)-- The Vice President and Prime Minister of Yemen, Khaled al Bahah, survived an attack on a hotel where he was staying in the southern city of Aden. According to reports, at least 15 soldiers were killed in a rocket attack on the al-Qasr Hotel.

One of the rockets exploded near the hotel's main entrance and a second hit a neighboring building.

A government spokesperson said that as many as 15 Yemeni soldiers were later killed in a grenade attack on the hotel.

<https://www.radiohc.cu/en/noticias/internacionales/71678-yemeni-vice-president-escapes-attack-on-residence>

Radio Habana Cuba