

Cuban Heroes Visit Archaeological City of Tiwanaco, Bolivia

La Paz, October 6 (RHC)-- The Cuban Five and Colonel Orlando Cardoso, an internationalist fighter who was jailed in Somalia for 11 years, visited the archaeological city of Tiwanaco, in Bolivia.

The five anti-terrorists -- Gerardo Hernández, René González, Fernando González, Antonio Guerrero, Ramón Labañino -- along with Orlando Cardoso, enjoyed lunch in an Aymara community and will take part in a ceremony later this evening, which will be held in the Central Bank Auditorium in La Paz.

The six Cuban heroes will also talk with members of the Cuban volunteer brigades in Bolivia and will travel to Vallegrande in Santa Cruz, where they will pay tribute to Argentinean-Cuban Ernesto Che Guevara. The Cuban visitors will then go to La Higuera, the place where Che was assassinated on October 9, 1967.
