

Solidarity Activists in Kazakhstan Demand Lifting of U.S. Blockade against Cuba

Astana, October 15 (RHC)-- The Kazakhstan-Cuba Friendship Association has demanded an end to the economic, commercial and financial blockade imposed and maintained by the United States against Cuba for over half a century.

A communique issued by the solidarity organization and handed over to Cuban ambassador to the Asian country Carlos Valdés, express their strong conviction that on October 27th, the vast majority of the international community will once again support the Cuban-sponsored UN resolution against the U.S. blockade policy.
