

New Shooting in U.S. State of Illinois

Chicago, October 20 (RHC)-- In the U.S. state of Illinois, three people are in critical condition after a drive-by shooting in Calumet City late Monday night.

Illinois police say that at least six people were wounded in the shooting that took place in a residential area of Calumet.

Family members told CBS News that they had gathered at a home after a funeral, when someone drove by and opened fire, striking people who were standing on a porch.
