

U.S. Blockade Inflicts Losses Worth Millions on Cuba's Education Sector

Havana, October 24 (RHC)-- Between April 2014 and March 2015, the U.S. blockade policy inflicted losses amounting to nearly 2 billion dollars on the country's education sector, representing nearly a quarter million dollars more than the previous year.

Paul Torres, spokesperson of the Cuban Education Ministry stressed that sanction imposed by the US on third countries that do business with Cuba have led foreign companies to significantly limit their exports to Cuba and consequently, the Caribbean state is forced to import school materials from far away countries like China with the resulting increase in freight fees.
