

Cuban President Raul Castro Signs Book of Condolences for Terrorist Attacks in Paris

Havana, November 17 (RHC)-- Cuban President Raul Castro visited the French embassy in Havana to sign the book of condolences for the victims of the terrorist attacks carried out last Friday in Paris.

The Cuban president wrote in the book of condolences: "In the name of the people and government of Cuba, I wish to reiterate deepest sympathies and solidarity to be extended to the relatives of the many victims of the atrocious terrorist attacks on November 13th, which we strongly condemn."

According to a news report on Cuban television, Raul Castro was received by the French Charge d'Affaires Guy Chistophe, who extended his appreciation for the visit, which included government Vice President Ricardo Cabrisas and Foreign Minister Bruno Rodriguez.
