

U.S. President Faces Protests in Philippines over U.S. Military Actions

Manila, November 18 (RHC)-- U.S. President Barack Obama faced protests over the role of the U.S. military as he arrived in the Philippines for the APEC summit.

His visit comes as the Philippines Supreme Court considers a constitutional challenge to a military deal that would grant U.S. troops broad access to military bases in the Philippines.

<https://www.radiohc.cu/en/noticias/internacionales/76247-us-president-faces-protests-in-philippines-over-us-military-actions>

Radio Habana Cuba