Muslim Woman and Jewish Man Attacked in Marseille

Paris, November 20 (RHC)-- In central Marseille, France, a young Muslim woman wearing a headscarf was punched and stabbed by a man as she exited a metro station. She said the attacker accused her of being a terrorist before stabbing her in her chest with a box cutter.

In another incident in the French city of Marseille, a Jewish history professor wearing a yarmulke was stabbed and injured yesterday afternoon.

Radio Habana Cuba