

International Seminar for Peace Begins Sessions in Guantánamo

Guantánamo, November 23 (RHC)-- The International seminar for Peace and the Elimination of Foreign Military Bases began sessions Monday in Guantánamo with the participation of delegates from 30 countries.

The event, which runs through Wednesday, is aimed at speeding up actions by social movements and pacifists towards world peace and against hegemony interests.

Delegates will analyze the impact of U.S. military presence on the regional countries, where they have set up and maintain military bases.
