

Cuban Hero Antonio Guerrero Highlights Achievements of Cuban Revolution

Moscow, November 28 (RHC)-- Cuban Hero Antonio Guerrero reaffirmed that the Cuban Five's release from U.S. jails after more than 15 years of unjust imprisonment was only possible thanks to the Cuban Revolution, its strength and the high prestige it enjoys internationally.

Guerrero, one of the Cuban Five, is currently in Moscow as part of an international tour. During an exchange on Saturday with Cuban students in Russia, the Cuban hero urged those present to defend Cuba, the revolution and its countless achievements often under adverse circumstances.

Also on Saturday, Antonio Guerrero placed a floral wreath at the Tomb of the Unknown Soldier, located in the Kremlin Wall in the Alexander Garden in Moscow.

During this, his first visit to Russia since being released from U.S. jails, Antonio Guerrero has met with Russian parliamentarians, diplomats and representatives of the solidarity with Cuba movement.
