

10,000 March in Belgium to Demand Action at UN Climate Summit

Brussels, December 7 (RHC)-- Ten thousand people marched in the Belgian city of Ostend on Sunday, calling for an ambitious accord at the UN climate summit.

According to reports over the weekend, hundreds also marched Saturday in the eastern suburbs of Paris. Protests are still banned in downtown Paris and the area surrounding the UN climate summit itself.

<https://www.radiohc.cu/en/noticias/internacionales/78045-10000-march-in-belgium-to-demand-action-at-un-climate-summit>

Radio Habana Cuba