

Award Ceremony for UNESCO/Jose Marti Prize to Be Held in Cuba

Paris, January 16 (RHC-PL) -- The awards ceremony for the International UNESCO/Jose Marti Prize will be held in Havana on January 28th, coinciding with the 163rd birthday anniversary of National Hero José Martí.

The ceremony will be in the framework of the 2nd International Conference "With All and for the Good of All", set to begin January 25th.

The prize, named after the Cuban hero, promotes and acknowledges outstanding merit in accordance with the ideals and spirit of Martí, which are in total harmony with the fundamental values promoted by UNESCO since its foundation.

Radio Habana Cuba