

Taliban Attack in Kabul Kills 20 Police Officers

Kabul, February 2 (RHC)-- In Afghanistan, a Taliban suicide attack near a police complex in Kabul has killed at least 20 police officers and wounded dozens more. It's the latest in a growing string of Taliban attacks in the capital.

The attack comes as U.S. military officials confirm that Afghan soldier and police casualties were up by nearly a third in 2015. U.S. military officials are increasing pressure on the Barack Obama administration to change its rules to give U.S. forces a larger role in military operations in Afghanistan.
