

Bomb Attacks Leave Six People Dead, 26 Wounded Across Baghdad

Baghdad, February 5 (RHC)-- At least six people have lost their lives and over two dozen others sustained injuries when a series of bomb explosions ripped through residential neighborhoods in Iraq's capital, Baghdad.

Iraqi security and medical officials, speaking on condition of anonymity, said two people were killed and nine others injured on Thursday when an improvised explosive device went off close to an outdoor market in the southern al-Rashid neighborhood of Baghdad, Arabic-language al-Baghdadia satellite television network reported.

Separately, a bomb detonated close to a restaurant in the Baiyaa neighborhood of western Baghdad, leaving two civilians dead and six others injured.

Earlier on Thursday, one civilian was also killed and nine others sustained injuries when an explosion ripped through Nahrawan, a southeastern commercial district of the capital.

The United Nations Assistance Mission for Iraq says a total of 849 Iraqis were killed and 1,450 others injured in acts of terrorism, violence and armed conflict in January.

According to the UN mission, the number of civilian fatalities stood at 490. Violence also claimed the lives of 359 members of the Iraqi security forces. A great portion of the fatalities was recorded in Baghdad, where 299 civilians were killed.

<https://www.radiohc.cu/en/noticias/internacionales/83362-bomb-attacks-leave-six-people-dead-26-wounded-across-baghdad>

Radio Habana Cuba