

Warnings in Venezuela of a Coup Led by the Opposition Against the Bolivarian Revolution

Caracas, Mar 2 (RHC) Diosdado Cabello, Senior Vice President of the ruling United Socialist Party of Venezuela, has warned that right wing sectors are promoting a new phase of violence to promote the ousting of President Nicolas Maduro.

After a party meeting in Caracas, Cabello warned of opposition efforts to ignore public institutions, insisting on a coup through a plan to undermine the sovereign will and raze the Constitution.

Meanwhile, the United Socialist Party voiced rejection of every attempt to reprivatize public work places, and voiced support to the rally held in Caracas against a bill the opposition promotes known as National Production Bill.
